Our mission is for young girls, from diverse socioeconomic communities, to be given opportunities to compete with successful outcomes through volleyball.

vision

Fundamental to Shenu VBC is our concern for the socioeconomic diverse female athletes, both individually and collectively.

- ▶ We believe that we will enhance, inspire, improve and motivate young girls through volleyball.
- ▶ We believe that given equal opportunities and exposure to upper level training all athletes can be successful.
- ▶ We believe that the active support of our communities will provide direction and resources for the athlete's success.
- ▶ We believe that the active support of our parents/guardians contribute to consistent positive performance.
- ▶ We believe the lessons learned on the volleyball court are transferable to life challenges off the court.
- ▶ We believe that all athletes given respect, shown encouraging attitudes and behaviors will reflect the same.

mission

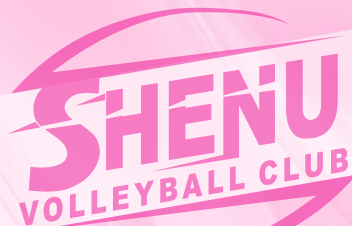

Benishe attended Long Beach State University in Long Beach, California and graduated with a Bachelors degree in Human Development. Benishe was a 49er from 1995 to 1998. She capped off her collegiate career in style, leading Long Beach State to the 1998 NCAA National Championship. As a team Co-Captain the 49ers became the first team in the NCAA Division I history to go through a season unbeaten, 36-0. She was named to the NCAA Final Four All-Tournament Team. She was selected to the 1998 AVCA All-American Second Team and a two-time AVCA All-American selection and First Team All-Big West Conference 1998.

After a two year run with the USA National Volleyball Team and named to the 2000 Sydney Olympic team as an Alternate, Benishe played professionally in Italy, Switzerland, Spain, Puerto Rico and in the USA.

At Shenu VBC we are committed to the all around development program of our girls. We encourage growth of the athletes as well as the social development of each individual. We teach the importance of being a team player, promote health education, and academic excellence and encourage community service.

We believe these factors are the ingredients to a successful life. Winning is important as a team, but it is not the total focus of Shenu VBC. We believe by developing the character of the individual player ultimately benefits the team and the club.
